

Become a Honor Troop

Set & keep a regular meeting time and location

Involve parents for support in at least one meeting per month.

Participate in Girl Scout traditions

Learn the Promise & Law, sing Girl Scout songs, take part in ceremonies, and wear uniforms.

Complete a service project

Help at a community event, collect items for a shelter, visit a nursing home or sing songs.

Take part in an outdoor activity

Go to your community park, take a hike, or go to camp.

Go on a field trip or attend a Girl Scout event

Explore local sites or find activities at GirlScoutsToday.org.

Participate in Girl Scout Product Programs

Fall Product and Cookie Programs are essential to join.

Choose a few badges to work on

Choose badges from a wide range of options that interest girls.

Have fun

Make memories with your troop that will last a lifetime!

Achieve all requirements?

Visit GirlScoutsToday.org/Resources to receive recognition for earning Honor Troop status!

gseiwi