12-19

It might be a good idea for you to wait until next year to send your girl to overnight camp. Day camp, shorter sessions, or friends & family camp are good options. You may benefit from giving your girl small opportunities to exercise independence before she leaves home for several days.

20-28

You may feel more confident if you participate in a Facebook Live session or attend an open house. Make sure to follow the tips in the confirmation packet (sent after your girl has been signed up).

29-36

You are ready to send your girl to an overnight camp that last six days or longer. You are confident in her ability to prepare and have a great time at camp.
