Service Unit Program Director

Create the moments girls remember.

As the Service Unit Program Director, you help bring the Girl Scout experience to life beyond the troop. You create opportunities for girls to explore, serve, celebrate milestones, and connect with the broader Girl Scout community.

If you love planning events, encouraging creativity, or helping others shine, this role is for you. Many activities can be supported by committees or event coordinators. This is a collaborative role that brings together people across your service unit!

What you'll do:

- Plan and support service unit level events and activities
- Coordinate community service and special experiences
- Support troop leaders with questions about program and events
- Organize bridging ceremonies and end of year celebrations
- Share photos and highlights to celebrate girls' achievements

Your Year at a Glance:

Fall
- Support Fall Product Program events
- Help launch the new Girl Scout year

Winter
- Support Cookie Program related events
- Encourage community service

Spring
- Host a service unit bridging ceremony and year end volunteer celebrations
- Wrap up events and celebrate accomplishments

Summer
- Support volunteer led camp or outdoor events
- Share highlights and reflect on the year

Role requirements: Girl Scout membership, background check, all required training
Term: 3 years (option to renew after review)

Support you'll receieve

- Onboarding meeting with Volunteer Development
- Training through gsLearn
- Ongoing partnership with your Community Engagement Manager
- A service unit team that works together

Why volunteers love this role

- You see girls having fun and growing firsthand
- You get to be creative and flexible
- Events are collaborative, with shared joy and shared work
